Dear Judge Kaplan:

The purpose of this letter is to inform this Honorable Court that the above-referenced matter appears to be successfully resolved. After this action had been filed, my client received her long-awaited oath ceremony notice (please see attached). She is scheduled to be sworn in as a U.S. citizen on Friday, November 30, by this Court (Id.).

Given the aforementioned developments, the Plaintiff kindly requests that her case be taken off the list for tomorrow, and a conditional dismissal be issued in this case (to ensure the Plaintiff will, in fact, get naturalized on Friday).

If there is any other information or documentation the Plaintiff can provide, kindly let me know.

Case dismissed without prejudice to restategment by the filing, on or before 12/31/07. If it is not naturalized by then, we will file a motion for summary judgment.

LEWIS A. KAPLAN, USDC
